

First Aid Job Description

There are three people that make up the First Aid Team. One person will be hired as the team leader and the other two will support

JOB DESCRIPTION

- Will be on full time staff
- Will NOT be in a bunkhouse with campers
- Will work with medication administration
- Will care for campers with complaints of mild to moderate injury or illness
- Will work under an RN and receive medical advice/direction from them
- Will provide first aid/medical care to campers, full time staff, and part time staff
- Will call parents when necessary to inform them of their campers' medical status
- Will occasionally work on the weekends with ill staff members and parents with medical concern

ELIGIBILITY:

- Must have proven social and leadership skills
- Must be CPR/FIRST AID certified
- Must have basic medical/pharmaceutical knowledge
- Must be extremely flexible and able to work under pressure
- Must be a fast learner and capable of adapting
- Must sign and comply with the Brookhill Ranch Code of Conduct
- Must complete a health evaluation two weeks prior to the session hired

EXPECTATIONS:

- Must be teachable
- Must have patience
- Must work well with others
- Must be able to perform life-saving first aid if the need arises
- Must be responsible
- Must be efficient
- Must love, train and disciple JC's
- Must agree to a background check
- Must have exceptional people skills
- Must be able to submit to and work for authority
- Must be able to complete office work and tasks in the allotted time
- Must understand and support the values and mission of Brookhill Ranch